The discussion continued for a while longer without making any further headway, but Kalens seemed more thoughtful and less insistent. Eventually the others left, and Fulmire sat for a long time staring with a troubled expression at his desk. At last he activated the terminal by his chair, which he had switched off earlier in response to Kalens's request for "one or two informal opinions that I would rather not be committed to record." Jay shrugged. "All the things crazy people usually follow crazy leaders for, I guess." He ordered a beer from a waitress who had evidently sewn herself into her faded, peg-legged blue jeans. of aspirin. The "market," as Jay had described it, was situated several levels above the terminal. To get to it they used a series of escalators. A lot of people were milling about, of her room to go to the toilet or to get something to eat, then it could slip in her room, too, through the shoes and up into the mother ship.
